MMA helps you be competitive.
With thousands of lobbyists pushing policies counter to your interests, MMA is Michigan's most powerful voice representing you — and your bottom line.

MMA gets you connected.
Where do you go for networking? How do you access training dollars and economic incentives? How do you stay aware of new environmental regulations? How do you claim your Personal Property Tax savings? Who do you call for legal guidance and HR advice? MMA is your go-to point of contact.

MMA keeps you informed.
MMA helps cut down the information clutter with award-winning publications and events focused on the emerging issues affecting your business.

MMA saves you money.
We provide you with insurance savings, strategic business services and member exclusive discounts.

“...Within the first two weeks of our membership with MMA, it paid for itself more than four times over. Within three days — that's right, three days — a year-long tax headache was resolved. MMA's fast response is by far the best service I have ever gotten from an association.”
